

Hello

Meet Gail Dudley

Gail, known as the Audacious Advocate, serves communities across the United States as a civic engagement consultant. Through her broadcast, News in Motion, she boldly champions nationwide community involvement, educating, empowering, equipping, and encouraging viewers to register to vote, become informed voters, and actively participate in the voting process. Additionally, her impactful commentary and inspirational calls to action engage a loyal audience, influencing meaningful change. Since the COVID pandemic, Gail and her team have registered tens of thousands of people to vote.
